Subject RE: August 2009 Advisory "A Guide to Considering Small Business When Using Schedules"

David,

Thanks for asking! I am glad you found the Advisory useful. I'd like to compliment you on your blog as well; it is a great addition to the GSA site.

Our official permission follows:

Acquisition Solutions, Inc., hereby grants to David Clemens of the General Services Administration, limited rights for one-time distribution (posting) of the Acquisition Solutions® August 2009 Advisory, "A Guide to Considering Small Business When Using Schedules," as requested below. The publication must be posted verbatim with no alterations made. The posting should indicate "posted by [specify office] with permission of Acquisition Solutions, Inc." Any other use is a violation of United States and international copyright laws. All rights reserved by Acquisition Solutions, Inc.

Please let me know if there is anything else we can do for you.

Thanks!

Ms. Poole -

I enjoyed reading your August 2009 article "A Guide to Considering Small Business When Using Schedules."

I'm the person referenced in three of the article's footnotes.

Do you have any objection to me posting the August 2009 Acquisition Solutions Inc. article at my GSA blogsite, the same one referenced in your article?

"Services Ordering Solutions: Avoiding MAS Confusion"

I think the readers of the blog will enjoy reading the article and it could generate some good comments from readers inside and outside GSA .

Thanks again for a very comprehensive article ,

Dave
